The Daily Courant.

Thurſday, November 26. 1702.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Nov. 18.

Ratiſbon, November 9.

SOme days ago 300 Bavarians came before this City and demanded leave to paſs through it; upon which the Magiſtrates having long deliberated, after giving neceſſary Orders to prevent all Surprize, permitted them yeſterday to march through; they committed no Diſorder, and are gone upwards along the Danube.

From the Harlem Courant, dated Nov. 18.

Ratiſbon, Nov. 9. The Elector of Bavaria has caus'd another Body of 8000 Men to be drawn out of his Militia, part of them are to be diſpos'd in the Lines and Frontier places of Bavaria, the reſt are to joyn the Army under the Elector; who has at leaſt 40000 Men now in Arms; of which number one half are Regular Troops, the other is compos'd out of the Militia of his Country.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated Nov. 23.

Ratiſbon, Nov. 13. The 4 Imperial Cities of Ausburg, Nurenburg, Ulm, and Landau, have written to the Emperor, deſiring they may be allow'd to keep up ſo much of their Traffick with France, as may be profitable to the Empire, and ſupport their Handicrafts-men; who through a total Prohibition of Commerce, will not have Employment ſufficient to maintain them.

Frankfort, Nov. 19. Some pretend that the Elector of Bavaria inſiſts on the following Demands, as his Terms of Accommodation with the Emperor. 1. To be paid the Portion of his firſt Wife, the Emperor's eldeſt Daughter, according to the Marriage Contract. 2. To have an Annual Penſion of 300000 Livres of the Houſe of Auſtria, in lieu of a like Sum which Spain has given him for Life, as Governour of the Spaniſh Netherlands. 3. That all his Charges in the War of Hungary be made good to him. 4. To be reimburs'd his Expences in raiſing Forces this Campaign, by the Circles of Swabia and Franconia. 5. That certain Pretentions of his relating to the County of Burgau be ſatisfied. 6. That whatever belong'd to Bavaria and the Palatinate, be reſtor'd to him. 7. That he be put into Poſſeſſion of the County of Ortenburg. 8. That his Brother the Elector of Cologne be fully reinſtated.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Nov. 25.

Paris, Nov. 24. They write from Breſt, That the Frigat Solon had ſent in thither three Prizes. The firſt was bound from England to Faro in Portugal, taken on the 18th of October. The ſecond was taken two days after, laden with Sugar and Logwood; and the third laden with Fiſh, was taken on the fourth inſtant. The Sieur de la Vallee Commander of a ſmall Frigate, took an Engliſh Veſſel on the 20th ult. which was ranſom'd by the Maſter for 400 Crowns. On the 21ſt he took another laden with Tobacco from Virginia, and another the next day from Virginia likewiſe; both valued at 80000 Livres. On the ſecond inſtant he took a Dutch Veſſel of 250 Tons coming from Curaſſou, but being purſued by an Engliſh Man of War of 50 Guns, he was oblig'd to let her go, after he had taken out Plate, Cacao, and other Goods to the Value of 50000 Livres. At his coming into Breſt he was attack'd by a Fluſhinger of 18 Guns, who made off after receiving great damage.

Paris, Nov. 25. On the 19th the Archbiſhop of Avignon, Nuncio Extraordinary from the Pope, made his publick Entry into this City, in great Pomp, and two days after had his publick Audience of the King at Verſailles.

The Amſterdam Courant of the 23d, in the Article from Paris of the 17th ſays, The King of France has given his Opinion, That the Earl of Marlborough, according to the Rules of War, ought to be deem'd a Priſoner, for that he was actually taken, and did not own his right Name; and that a Perſon of his Quality cannot be included in the Paſſport of a Miniſter of Holland. Some pretend the King has order'd the Earl to be Summon'd to Surrender himſelf; and on this occaſion the Example of General Montgon is quoted, who ſurrender'd himſelf a Priſoner in Italy, when it was diſputable whether he was oblig'd by the Rules of War ſo to do. The Commander of the Party is mightily blam'd however, for not carrying the Earl immediately to Gelder.

The Paris Letter or Gazette a la main of the ſame Date, that ordinarily comes over hither, had not a word of this Matter; nor is there any mention of my Lord Marlborough, in either the Printed or Written News from Paris by the two laſt Poſts; except what follows in the Paris Gazette, dated Nov. 25.

Hague, Nov. 16. The Earl of Marlborough arriv'd here ſome days ago, with Baron Obdam, and Monſieur Geldermalſen, after having all been taken and detain'd 4 Hours by a Party of the Garriſon of Gelder, who not knowing them, releas'd them upon Monſieur Geldermalſen's producing a Paſſport to the Commander of the Party.

Kinſale, Nov. 14. This day came in here the St. Sebaſtian of 120 Tons laden with Fiſh from Newfoundland, taken by Her Majeſty's Ship the Medway; and as ſhe reports, was ſeparated by bad Weather from a Fleet of 60 Sail, part of which are thought to be the Ships taken by Commodore Lake.

Plymouth, Nov. 22. Yeſterday came in a Prize of about 120 Tons laden with Salt and Fiſh from Newfoundland, taken by Her Majeſty's Ship the Reſerve.

Dartmouth, Nov. 22. Yeſterday was driven in here by Streſs of Weather, a Newfoundland Prize taken by the Lichfield. To day a Ketch of Biddiford, and the Dolphin Sloop of this place, both from Newfoundland, came into our Harbour.

Deale, Nov. 25. The following Men of War are now in the Downs, viz. The Royal Oak, Cheſter, Woolwich, Salisbury, Lynn, Tartar, Falkland, Rye, Speedwell, and Poſtillion; with ſeveral outward bound Merchant Ships, Tranſports, and Tenders.

NOtice is hereby given, That the late Dutcheſs of Richmond's China ſmall Japans and Tea-Tables, will be expoſed to Sale on Saturday the 28th of this inſtant November, at Ten a Clock in the Forenoon, at her Grace's late Dwelling-houſe on the Thames ſide near the Privy-Garden White-hall.
